"When people think of connection, they usually first think of the internet. However, at HUM3 we value the connection of our community. It’s important that as human beings we take responsibility for the role we play in society & we take time to connect with our community, our culture, the past, and more importantly people. As a school community we understand that responsibility and lead the charge as Humanitarians."

~ Engagement Coordinator, Mrs. Lewis