“...In these unprecedented times of social distance and virtual learning supporting the social and emotional needs of our school community is paramount. New Visions Charter Schools are responding to the needs of our communities by providing new and innovative ways to support SEL development. Many schools have shifted to virtual advisory and creating spaces for students to explore feelings and process these changes in supportive environments. Thank you to our extraordinary school counselors and staff who continue to build community & support each other.”

Herstory

The Leading Ladies Club put their stamp on Women’s History Month by sharing the unique stories and inspiring words and messages of the 21 outstanding women in our school community with the HUM3 Family.

Virtual Town Halls

It’s important that our scholars know that the HUM3 staff is still here to support them during this time of social distancing so we host regular Town Halls to engage...
